

Santa Fe County 4-H Boosters' Club

What is the Santa Fe County 4-H Boosters' Club?

The Santa Fe County 4-H Boosters' Club is a unique organization composed of volunteers dedicated to supporting the local 4-H Youth Development program. The 4-H Boosters' Club is a crucial component of both our county 4-H program as well as our County Fair.

What does the Santa Fe County 4-H Boosters' Club do?

Throughout the year the 4-H Boosters' Club supports our program by sponsoring such 4-H events as camp, providing scholarships to senior 4-H members, sponsoring 4-H teams competing at National Contests, and purchasing supplies throughout the year. During the County Fair the 4-H Boosters' Club provides display banners for the show ring, assists with judges' expenses and awards, and sponsors the Junior Livestock Auction just to name a few. In addition, the 4-H Boosters' Club is also responsible for all County Fair Buyers' gifts and recognition including the County Fair calendar and newspaper thank you ads.

How can you help?

In order to keep providing the financial support to our 4-H program and County Fair, the 4-H Boosters' Club relies on fundraising and donations.
